Let's make it work: The Podcast

The podcast brings together voices from education, business and policy to explore how modern work experience can work better for every young person.

Each episode will share practical insights, real examples and actionable takeaways - including a closer look at equalex, our framework for high-quality, progressive workplace experiences.

Episode 1: Bringing modern work experience to life out on 14th January. In this episode, we'll discuss:

- Looking at what your careers provision currently is and where you can add value
- The skills that employers are looking for in the next five years
- Empowering young people to advocate for themselves in the workplace
